

“I arrived at Coady with the quest of learning new strategies and developing skills through Coady staff and the participants of the diploma program. As a leader, I would be able to serve humanity and make a difference.

I am convinced that Coady is the resource that would broaden my vision for a just and equitable society.”

Sr. Celine Lasrado SRA

Coordinator

Deepalaya Social Centre, India

As the coordinator and the manager of Deepalaya, I execute and monitor various developmental activities for different members of the community with a special focus paid on women, youth and children using formal and non-formal education programs, and establishing networking with state and non-state actors.

The Deepalaya Social Centre pursues economic, social, cultural and spiritual progress in the hope that people and children enjoy a full and abundant life. This organization works to bring about a qualitative change in health and socioeconomic life by organizing and educating people to live in dignity irrespective of caste, creed or religion. We create sustainability and capacity building for women, youth and children at their different levels.
