

I came looking for new training approaches, content, up-to-date knowledge and to challenge myself by going out of my comfort zone. When I return I will continue practicing the new skills to impact my community.

Wala' AL Jallad

Trainer on social entrepreneurship / freelance lead delegate / volunteer organizer and board member ActionAid Global Platform / Generations for Peace / Trip To Innovation, Jordan

I am responsible for training, designing, coordination, implementation and reporting with Action Aid.

At Generations for Peace, I am responsible for leading and supervising a group of four delegates who work on implementing their own program in one of the governorates in a women's local center in Mafraq. I provide them with feedback, evaluation and guidance. I am also their link to the organization.

With Trip to Innovation, I am an organizer for the main events.

ActionAid is working for a world free from poverty and injustice.

Generations for Peace's vision is sustainable peace in actively tolerant communities through responsible citizenship.

Trip to Innovation is working to create a platform to spread innovation culture and social entrepreneurship among youth in Jordan.
