

I want to strengthen my leadership skills to initiate an innovative dialogue for community development using community radio and to identify how community media can be an effective tool for positive social change.

Bhumiraj Chapagain

Board secretary

Community Radio Vijaya FM 101.6 MHz, Nawalparasi, Nepal

I support to formulate broadcast policies, periodic plans and activities/strategies in order to achieve our organization's vision, goals and objectives. Duties include monitoring, evaluation and documentation of progress for reporting to the board and our annual general meeting. Also: support and supervise manager for broadcast management; liaison between radio station and board; maintain functional relationship and coordination with like-minded organizations, the community and stakeholders.

Community Radio Vijaya FM-Nepal, a common endeavor of local people, is run by Vijaya Community Information and Communication Cooperative Ltd., and promoted by VDRC-Nepal. We believe in a self-reliant community communication center for positive social change through awareness. It is a public platform for democratic discourse, public accountability, social cohesion, local identity, cultural harmony, social justice and works to strengthen freedom of expression and the right to information.
