

“I am very grateful to Coady International Institute. I came to strengthen my leadership capacity to help improve and sustain community development in marginalized communities.”

Community program coordinator

Puranchal Gramin Seva Sammitte, Gorakhpur, Gorakhpur, India

Puranchal Gramin Seva Sammitte, Gorakhpur U.P. India is a non-profit diocesan organization. As a community program coordinator, I work in adult education, leadership programs and economic/income generation programs for self-help and farmers groups. I also deliver awareness programs to adolescence groups to empower their sustainability in the marginalized society. After this course I will be returning to the same organization to continue this important development work.
