

To be empowered with knowledge and build my capacity as an emerging leader, and learn from the experiences of other women in the program.

Kabuga Akekodaga

Assembly woman

Kasena-Nankana West District Assembly, Ghana

I am chairperson for women and children affairs within the Assembly, where I advocate for women and childrens' rights to be recognised

- Educate electorate on government policies and Assembly programs and projects.
- Give the Assembly adequate information about particular communities .
- Lobby the Assembly on behalf of the communities.
- Liaise with public and private institutions/NGOs to attract resources and assistance.
- Supervise, advise, monitor and evaluate programs and projects on behalf of the Assembly.
- Initiate and take part in developmental activities within my electoral area.

The Kasena-Nankana West District Assembly is among the 275 districts, metropolitan and municipal assemblies in the country. Located in Paga in the Upper East Region of Ghana, the Assembly was created as the pivot of administrative and developmental decision-making and the basic unit of government administration. It's assigned with deliberative, legislative and executive functions.

COADY

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE
ST. FRANCIS XAVIER UNIVERSITY

Global Change Leaders Class of 2015