

“Coady is a place where leaders are made; it’s a place of self-reflection and virtue. The benefit of this course will be transferred to the women and children in my communities and Africa-at-large as we create lasting change.”

Faith Kalikeka Masupa

Founder and chief executive officer

Mother of Millions Foundation, Lusaka

My duties include: creating networking and collaboration opportunities for the organization; mentoring, leading and managing an effective team; advocacy and strategic planning of policies that support and foster children and women’s rights; designing capacity building programs for youth; and engaging government ministries on their roles - providing checks and balances. Strategic planning and developing income-generating activities to sustain the organization are essential. I am also focused on evaluation of the organization as well as clarifying our vision, focus and principles of existence.

Mother of Millions Foundation provides education, nutrition and healthcare facilities to children born and living in prisons. We have taken care of more than 250 children and have built a school and skills center for female inmates at the Lusaka Central Prison. We offer them education and skills to help them reintegrate into society. Our work has spread to five other prisons in Zambia where we advocate for equity and equality. Our vision is to build future leaders beyond prison walls in Africa and beyond.
