

“In order to contribute to the change I want to see, I need more energy — this is generated from critical learning with real, inspired people who have broken through many kinds of challenging boundaries in their personal and working lives.”

Chau Sophon

Youth coordinator

Finn Church Aid, Cambodia

I am working in the area of building capacity, knowledge, and increasing leadership opportunities for youth so they have the confidence and skills to claim spaces and contribute to community development. Youth need to be recognized and acknowledged without discrimination as they do meaningful work in the subjects they are interested in. I am also building networks and linking youth to those who can best support them.

Finn Church Aid is the largest Finnish development cooperation organisation and the second largest provider of humanitarian assistance. We contribute to positive change by supporting people in the most vulnerable situations within fragile and disaster-affected areas. We specialize in supporting local communities in three priority areas: the right to peace, livelihoods, and education. The organization acts as facilitator, advocate and supporter, and in exceptional cases, as an implementer.
