I came to Coady because I love to learn and experience new things. I wanted to hear other women's stories and be part of a movement of Indigenous women change makers and leaders.

I am the daughter of Cecilia Pitawanakwat and Timothy O'Connor (deceased). I have three beautiful children, Timothy, 19, and two daughters, Grace, 9, and Clarissa, 6. I live and work in my community as a registered nurse. I worked in community health, long-term care, education and home and community care.

My passion is lifelong learning. I love to learn and share my knowledge with my friends, family and community.
