ALL WOMEN-POSITIVE FOLKS ARE WELCOME!

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S WEEK Antigonish - March 3 to 14, 2020

IWW Family Singalong

Sing about, celebrate, and thank the women in our lives who do so much in this IWW-themed, women-positive, child-friendly Family Singalong hosted by Elizabeth Glinz.

IWD Breakfast

Join us for a special breakfast to mark International Women's Day with community organizers of different generations talking about their feminist resistance. For tickets, call the Antigonish Women's Resource Centre at 902-863-6221. $25 waged; $15 unwaged/student; $5 under 12 yrs; free under 5 yrs. Fundraiser for Women's Centre.

Solidarity as a Verb Workshop + Keynote

Put your solidarity to action with the Antigonish Youth Activism Conference, Masuma Khan, and Ajay Parasam for a workshop (3:00 pm) and keynote (6:30 pm) on living, working, and teaching on stolen territory.

IWW Free Coffee for Women

Women-folk! Enjoy a cup of coffee on behalf of participating businesses in Antigonish on March 9 to recognize International Women's Week.

L'Arche Poster Making, Art Display + Yoga Dance Performance

Get inspired by the artistic and community contributions of the women of L'Arche and make your own IWW poster for the Waves of Feminist Resistance March.

Waves of Feminist Resistance March

Reflect on the generations of feminist resistance and take to the streets with local women leaders.

Pop Up Period Party

Support girls and young women in our region who are taking action to reclaim menstruation.

IWW Coffeehouse

Take in performances by young musicians and poets in our community, marking International Women's Week in song and prose.

Women Land + Water Defenders in Mi'kma'ki

Learn from women land and water defenders in Mi'kma'ki with Dr. Janet Conway, Nancy's Chair in Women's Studies at Mount Saint Vincent, and special guests. Connect with and support women's land and water defense struggles in our region.

Generation Equality: Celebrating the Sheroes of the World

Come together with women and girls from different cultures, backgrounds, and generations to share in their achievements. Get a glimpse of the hardships women and girls go through when they move to a new country, and the resiliency they live their lives daily.

Feminist Cabaret + Dance

Spend a night out with Jenn Priddle and special co-host Michelle Langille for an evening of dazzling performances by talented community members. Stay after to dance! Pay at the door. $15 waged; $10 unwaged/student. Fundraiser for Women's Centre. Doors open at 7:30 pm.
